"In the Spring a Young Man's Fancy." "Lightly turn to thought of love," but the majority of people turn their thoughts toward some good spring medicine, which will tone up the system, purify the blood and remove all of the injurious elements which are lurking in the life current, making it sluggish and a bearer of disease rather than of health. Such a medicine is Parnele's Sarsaparilla and Iodine of Potassa Compound. It is put up under experienced medical directions, and contains just those ingredients which the most perfect scientific knowledge tells us is needed in such a compound. Pure and effective. Bottle holding 8 ounces 50 cents. Why pay $1.00 for 11 ounces? Sold by dealers.

"Is Life Worth the Living?" It was a wise man who said, "That depends largely upon the liver. If it is on the verge of being sick, if your kidneys are affected, and if you are suffering from dyspepsia, with any of the terrible features which accompany it, make a thorough trial of Parnele's Dyspepsia, Kidney and Liver Cure. It has helped thousands. It will cure you if anything can. Ask your druggist for it."

Tell the Truth if You Can. If you can't don't advertise. That is just what we are willing to do or quit. If any article in the world will stand the truth and the whole truth, it is Hamilton's Cough Balsam. It has been in use for years and has helped thousands who have known it the longest. For all coughs, colds, hoarseness, bronchitis, asthma, primary consumption, and kindred complaints it will give quick relief and sure effect. A child. It is purely vegetable and perfectly safe for children. This makes it especially valuable in croup, whooping cough, and diphtheria, or other affections of the throat and lungs which effect children. It is guaranteed to give quick relief. Keep in the house for emergencies. Price 25 cents. Remember the name, Hamilton's Cough Balsam. Ask for it. Take no other. Your druggist has or he can easily get it. Sold by dealers generally.

The Standard-Bred Trotting Stallion CHEPACKE!

(No. 2290)

Will be at his own stable in Yale every afternoon for service, Tuesday and Wednesday excepted. Breeding, size, style, action and disposition considered, we think him the best horse in Eastern Michigan, and we make this statement without fear of a fair contradiction. His sire, Governor Sprague, was one of the best racehorses that ever lived, and was, therefore, turned nearly all his life. Consequently there is in all but 111 of his get of which 35 are in the 2:30 list, and barring accidents CHEPACKE will add one more to his roll of honor this season. Never before, within the last 100 years, has the service fee of such a horse been placed as low as $15.00. For particulars enquire of
